FACTSHEET

About us

Founded in 1956, National Economics University is one of the leading universities in Economics, Management and Business Administration in Vietnam.

Since November 2024, the National Economics University has evolved into a comprehensive, multidisciplinary institution. Beyond its long-standing strengths in economics and business administration, the university now embraces technology-related disciplines, opening new opportunities for innovation, research, and global collaboration.

We offer 48 undergraduate programmes fully and partly in English, which also allows for a rich, multidisciplinary selection of English-taught courses to exchange students.
