

Chinese Language and Literature Programmes in BNU

Incoming exchange students will be able to choose where to study (Beijing or Zhuhai), depending on what programme they choose. But please note that once registered at one campus, students will not be able to move to another.

There are 3 Chinese Language and Literature programmes in BNU as followings:

Chinese Language (汉语言)

- No HSK required.
- This programme is delivered at Beijing Campus.
- This programme is a language programme designed for international students. Upon arrival, students will take a placement test to determine their language proficiency level and be placed accordingly.
- Students will study at School of International Chinese Language Education with international students and registered as “Chinese language programme”.
- Students who choose this programme are not allowed to take other English-taught courses or courses from other schools.

Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Language (国际中文教育)

- HSK 4 required.
- This is an undergraduate programme and it is delivered at BNU Zhuhai Campus. Once students choose this programme that they will study at Zhuhai, Guangdong province, southeast China.
- Students will study at School of International Chinese Language Education with local undergraduate Chinese students and registered as “Undergraduate Credit Programme” (General Advanced Studies Students).

Chinese Language and Literature (汉语言文学)

- HSK 5 required.
- This programme is delivered at Beijing Campus and it is open to undergraduate and postgraduate students.
- Students will study at School of Chinese Language and Literature with local Chinese students and registered as “Undergraduate/Graduate Credit Programme” (General/Senior Advanced Studies Students).
