VISA

All non-Chinese students who will be studying in China must apply for a student visa to enter China. A JW202 form and admission letter will be sent to you for the application of Chinese visa. This must be done at your nearest Chinese consulate or embassy no later than 2 months before registration date.

ACCOMMODATION

On-campus accommodation is provided for exchange students. We offer twin rooms and single rooms. Please note that request for on-campus accommodation must be filled in the application form and due to the limited number of single rooms, your accommodation application will be processed on a "first come, first serve" basis. GDUFE doesn't offer off-campus housing, but we offer support finding an off-campus accommodation. Or you may use Airbnb or other formal and legal apps/websites for off-campus accommodation.

WECHAT

For your own convenience of your life in China, we would like to suggest you to download a app called "Wechat" in your app store of your mobile phone. It's a social app with a lot of value adding services.
