Institute of International Culture and Education of Heilongjiang University was established in 1995. Over the past 30 years, it has recruited more than 26,000 international students from 139 countries across six continents, including Asia, Europe, North America, South America, Africa and Oceania, and has created the world-renowned "Study at Heilongjiang University" brand.

After decades of construction and development, the college has accumulated advanced experience in teaching and management. We have a team of full-time and part-time teachers with high professional ethics, excellent professional qualities, strong teaching skills and new educational concepts. The college offers long-term and short-term Chinese language improvement programs to meet different learning needs. With small class sizes, diverse Chinese language courses and teaching practices, as well as colorful cultural exchanges and experience activities, learners can rapidly enhance their Chinese proficiency in a short period of time.

The college offers two distinctive undergraduate programs, namely Chinese Language and Literature and International Economics and Trade, specifically for international students. The two majors, in light of the characteristics of international students, adopt a small-class teaching model, emphasizing individualized instruction. They are committed to cultivating high-quality talents with a solid foundation in the Chinese language, professional knowledge, and a profound understanding of Chinese culture. Upon graduation, students will receive a bachelor's degree certificate and a bachelor's degree.

The international students cultivated have the following advantages:

Chinese standard	Strong cross-cultural communication skills	Solid professional foundation and outstanding practical ability
------------------	--	---

The International College of Culture and Education will uphold its fine traditions, cultivate outstanding international talents, and promote cultural exchanges among countries around the world. Welcome everyone to choose the School of International Culture and Education of Heilongjiang University. Let's create a bright future together!
