MENASA SUMMER SCHOOL

The MENASA International Program Summer School 2024 is a 4-week intensive program offering a variety of study tracks of either or both language and content courses. In its fifth edition, the July 2024 summer school offers courses in:

- Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) (from beginning to advanced levels),
- Moroccan Colloquial Arabic (darija),
- MENA and Sahel area studies.

Students attending this program can earn up to 16 ECTS, equivalent to 6 American credits.

The credits earned are transferrable.

COMPONENTS

The MENASA summer school consists of two program components:

1. Summer Arabic Program (SAP)

The Summer Arabic program aims to significantly increase students' learning and fluency in MSA and enhance their ability to communicate with confidence. Classes in darija are offered to help students with everyday interactions with locals on and off campus sites. Students will have opportunities to put their language skills to use through community service, workshops, sports activities and class presentations

The Summer Arabic program includes 45 contact hours (8 ECTS/ 3 American credits) of MSA and 24 contact hours of darija (4 ECTS/ 1.5 American credits).

2. MENA Area Studies

The MENASA Area Studies Program aims to introduce international students to the region through the study of the culture, history, society, and politics. Students make their course selection from the following, earning up to 8 ECTS/ 3 American Credits:

- Contemporary Moroccan Society, Culture & Politics (4 ECTS),
- Morocco: A Gateway to Africa and the Middle East (4 ECTS),
- Challenges & Prospects of the New Geo-Politics of the Afro-Mediterranean Region (4 ECTS).

PROGRAM ACTIVITIES

15. Tour of Rabat

Rabat, the capital of Morocco, is an elegant city that follows the usual structure of major Moroccan imperial cities with the original downtown, which is called medina, surrounded by new modern neighborhoods. Rabat is rather quiet and is home to many tourist attractions such as: The Casbah of the Oudayas and King Mohammed V Mausoleum. A tour of Rabat is organized for program participants at the beginning of the program.

16. Arabic Calligraphy Workshop

Arabic calligraphy is the artistic practice of handwriting and calligraphy based on the alphabet. It is known in Arabic as khatt (Arabic: خط), derived from the word 'line', 'design', or 'construction'. The Kufi model, featured here, is the oldest form and most widely used of the Arabic script. A practical calligraphy workshop is organized for the benefit of students.

17. Visit to Weekly Souq in Sidi Allal Al-Bahraoui

Souks and markets are a major feature in Moroccan life, and among the country's greatest attractions. Each major city and town in Morocco has a special weekly souk. Villages in the country-side also have local souks which are usually held one day each week in an open field or outside the walled town squares. Making a Souk visit is one of the most significant learning experience

TESTIMONIAL

"Studying at UIR was incredibly enriching, allowing me to apply years of Arabic language and MENA culture studies while living with a host family in Rabat. The MENASA program provided insightful courses, including "Street Ethnographies," blending theory with real-life experiences. Professors Najib Mokhtari and Prof. Chekayri's pedagogy was exceptional, deepening my understanding of Moroccan culture and Arabic language. I highly recommend the MENASA program for international students seeking a profound understanding of the MENA region."

"My experience in Morocco and at UIR can be summed up simply as a story of human kindness, generosity, and liberated learning. I am eternally grateful that UIR... guided me with a team of the most selfless, wise, and genuine intellectuals I've ever met—who provided me with a space and the resources to explore, discuss, and indulge in my greatest interests. My 3 weeks here in Morocco and at UIR are something that I will never forget. I have developed a new family, home, and persona here and I can't wait to return."

Kayla Zamanian, USA, Summer School 2018

Study abroad can be one of the most rewarding experiences in a young person's life...when students return home, they bring new knowledge, new perspectives and a deeper understanding of the world."

Hilary Clinton, Former Senator

"Morocco is like a tree whose roots lie in Africa but whose leaves breathe in European air".

King Hassan II (July 1929-July 1999).
